

A COMMUNITY OF GENEROSITY

REED COLLEGE
CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN
AND ANNUAL FUND
DONOR RECOGNITION

In the summer of 2005, trustees, faculty members, and administrators came together to craft a vision for Reed's second century. This vision is informed by three core values that have animated Reed since its inception: inquiry, community, and integrity. Together, college leaders set a historic fundraising goal of $200 million, which became the Centennial Campaign.

As we enter the final year of the campaign, we celebrate you, members of Reed's centennial generation, for renewing the college's commitment to its historic ideals. Your collective generosity leaves a permanent stamp on the college comparable to that imprinted by the founding generation.

The enclosed pages list today's champions of the Reed ideals. You have led in many ways, including through your support of the Centennial Campaign and through your commitment to the Annual Fund.

Thank you.

Before I went back to school, most of my jobs made me feel invisible, incapable, and trapped at the bottom. Reed is opening doors to new lifestyles, and a step up the ladder. My great-grandmother would be proud to know I am breaking the tradition of struggle. Thank you for making it possible.

The day I received my financial aid letter from the college was one of the happiest days of my life; I remember sitting at a coffee shop with a friend. When I got the news that my parents would be able to send me to Reed, I stood straight up on my chair, fists in the air, and screamed "Yes!"
