Personal statements

(Please type or print)

These personal statements are an important part of the application. Your responses to the first four questions are required and should be original. If preferred, you may respond on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form. In addition, you are encouraged to submit a writing sample from your work in a recent academic, personal, or business-related endeavor.

1. How did you first learn about the Reed MALS program? What motivates you to consider the MALS program now, and how do you envision it meeting your educational, personal, and professional objectives?

2. Discuss those experiences outside of school that have contributed significantly to your education or influenced your perspective on learning. (This may include work, travel, or similar experiences.)

3. We would appreciate your providing us with a description of your reading habits and interests: what sort of material you tend to select, what works or authors may be favorites and why, what of particular note you have read recently or are currently reading.

4. Please describe the most important volunteer, community, or personal interest activities in which you currently are involved.

5. (Optional) If you have any special issues or academic concerns that have not been addressed adequately in this application, or if you would like to supply the committee with further information on your qualifications, please elaborate here.
