

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

INSTRUCTIONS

All Reed dance majors pursue both creative and critical work, but may choose an emphasis in dance studies—history, theory, critical and cultural studies—or dance studio—technique, choreography, improvisation, and performance. Seniors emphasizing dance studies undertake thesis projects that are focused in scholarly research but may also include a creative component.

A. REQUIREMENTS:

Six units in dance studies (history, theory, and critical and cultural studies) including Dance 201 and a 300-level junior seminar course before senior year. With departmental permission, one unit of this requirement can be fulfilled by a history, theory, or critical or cultural studies course in theatre, music, literature or art.

At least one unit of the above requirements must be met through a course or courses focusing outside the Euro-American dance tradition.

2. Check off and fill in the courses you have completed. Please note that no student may fulfill more than one distribution requirement through work in his or her major department.
