

CRES–HISTORY

A. Common CRES Core Requirements

1. Disciplinary CRES courses: One pair from each group (I and II) outside the home department

Group I: Arts, Literature, and Religion

- Two Dance units, including at least one CRES Dance unit
- Two Literature units, including at least one CRES Literature unit
- Two Music units, including at least one CRES Music unit
- Two Religion units, including at least one CRES Religion unit
- Two Theatre units, including at least one CRES Theatre unit

Group II: History and Social Science

- Anthropology 211, and one CRES Anthropology unit
 - Two History units, including at least one CRES History unit
 - Two Linguistics units, including at least one CRES Linguistics unit
 - Sociology 211 and one CRES Sociology unit
2. CRES interdisciplinary requirement (one unit): CRES 300.
3. CRES thesis: CRES 470

B. Home Department Requirements

Students must fulfill the following course requirements (Disciplinary CRES requirements can count towards home department requirements):

- 6 units of History, including History 411 or 412 (the junior seminar). Three of the courses must be CRES-History courses. In addition, the six units must include at least one unit each in United States history, European history, and the history of a region of the world other than Europe or the United States; and at least one unit will focus on the period before 1800 and one unit after 1800.
- CRES Disciplinary Group II must be satisfied in a second HSS department.
- Proficiency in a foreign language (see below).
- One CRES foundational course.

Proficiency in a foreign language

Proficiency in a non-English language is demonstrated by successful completion of secondary education in that language, successful completion of two units of college-level courses in that language at a second-year level or one unit at a higher level, successful completion of a language placement examination approved by the committee, or approval of the committee.

Note: 300-level history courses are ordinarily open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and to freshmen only with the consent of the instructor.
