

Economics 304
Daily Problem #25

Fall 2013
November 27

Why do economists focus on the Debt/GDP ratio when assessing the degree to which an economy is severely indebted? What are typical levels of Debt/GDP for countries? Why does the level at which Debt/GDP becomes worrisome for bond investors vary from country to country?