

Explain how each of the following would affect the equilibrium unemployment rate in the search and matching model?

- a. An increase in the productivity of workers
- b. An increase in unemployment benefits
- c. An increase in the degree of qualitative “mismatch” between workers and firms, which makes it more difficult to perform matches