Tucked into the heart of Portland's beloved Hollywood District, this beautifully furnished 1930s condo blends historic character with modern comfort. Thoughtfully preserved and filled with natural light, the home features original hardwood floors, leaded-glass windows, and curated mid-century and contemporary furnishings that create a warm, inviting atmosphere.

The spacious layout includes a serene bedroom with a queen Tempur-Pedic bed and blackout shades for restful nights, plus a large office and TV room that easily doubles as a guest space with a queen sleeper sofa. Outside, the peaceful shared courtyard feels like a hidden garden retreat, complete with mature magnolia trees, vibrant rose beds, and Japanese maples.

The updated kitchen is fully equipped for everyday cooking and baking, stocked with cookware, high-end appliances, and starter spices to help you settle in immediately. The home features a full bath supplied with towels, cleaning products, and starter toiletries, and an in-unit washer-dryer with starter detergent.

Conveniently located just a short walk from the MAX light rail with direct lines to downtown Portland, PDX Airport, the Moda Center, and more. Trader Joes, Whole Foods, cafs, restaurants, fitness studios, and frequent-service bus lines are all nearby, while Providence Portland Medical Center is less than a mile away.

Additional highlights include gated off-street parking with a dedicated space, included water, natural gas heat, and garbage/recycling service.

Additional utility fees:

Internet: $40/month

Electricity: Billed Separately

This is a rare opportunity to enjoy classic Portland architecture, modern amenities, and an unbeatable walkable location in one of the city's most charming neighborhoods
