REED COLLEGE

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT CERTIFICATION OF FINANCES

The purpose of the Certification of Finances is to help colleges and universities obtain complete and accurate information about the funds available to international applicants who want to study in the United States. Strict government regulations, rising education costs, and economic conditions have made verifying the financial resources of international applicants essential. Institutions do not have the option of deciding whether to verify the financial resources of their international applicants; financial verification must be made prior to institutional issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

This form is designed to standardize financial information provided by applicants to colleges, universities, and U.S. consuls. By completing this form and returning it to the college or university requiring it, an applicant, if admitted, may obtain that college's authorization and issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019). If parents and/or sponsors are unable to obtain a bank official's verification, it is recommended that institutions forward a copy of the International Student Financial Aid Application to the family for completion. The student should retain a copy of this certification for the visa application process. U.S. consuls scrutinize the statements of financial resources given by nonimmigrant visa applicants. This certification will help such officials make their decisions and expedite visa issuance.

Return directly to the college providing or requesting this statement.

The space below is for optional use by issuing institutions for listing student's expected annual budget.

In order to complete this form you will be expected to demonstrate that you have the funds readily available to cover one year of Reed College academic expenses beyond any offered financial aid.

Current tuition and fees are posted at reed.edu/apply/costs.

Return this completed form and attachments through the Reed College International Student Services secure document submission portal. Contact Reed College International Student Services (iss@reed.edu) with any questions. Please include:

- Photo or scan of the student's passport biographical page
- Attach supporting financial documents (i.e. a copy of bank statements, a letter of verification from the bank, bank letterhead, an official letter of support from a sponsor, or confirmation of a scholarship)
- Name all files with student's given name and family name included. As an example, "Jane Doe_COF.pdf".
