FALL SEMESTER 2018

OCT 29 (Mon.), no later than 12 noon - DRAFT DEADLINE: *This draft, and this draft only, may be submitted by email to your adviser, after obtaining your adviser's permission. Make sure that your adviser confirms receipt of the draft with the Division Administrative Coordinator. All students in the Division of Literature and Languages, with the exception of students writing creative theses, are required to submit one copy of a draft of the complete thesis on the second Monday after mid-semester break to the Division Administrative Coordinator, Joan Meyer (Psychology 116). This draft should represent a complete, preliminary version of the thesis and should include a clearly articulated introduction and conclusion. Students should keep in mind that the Division recommends a length of 18,000-22,000 words (not including notes and bibliography). Your thesis adviser will read the draft and provide you with suggested revisions within one week. Any student who does not meet the draft deadline will not be guaranteed comments by their adviser. In addition, because the Division considers this an essential portion of the thesis course, any student who does not meet the draft deadline should not expect to graduate at the regular time. If, in spite of this, the thesis is accepted for graduation, the final grade for the thesis course may be lowered.

NOV 30 (Fri.), no later than 3:00 pm – Senior theses are due in Registrar's Office (4 copies with adviser's signature on separate page).

DEC 6-7 (Th-F), Thesis Orals Boards (scheduled by the Division) will be held during the week at 10 am-12 noon, 1-3 pm or 3-5 pm.

DEC 14 (Fri), no later than 12 noon – Bound copies of senior theses with adviser's signature on Approval Page are due in the library (2 copies).
