

Taiwan: NCKU-MTC / NTU-ICLP

Reed has affiliations with two Taiwanese universities in order to provide students with the opportunity to participate in academically rigorous and immersive Chinese language programs in Taipei and Hainan. The International Chinese Language Program (ICLP) at the National Taiwan University (NTU) in Taipei is widely considered to be one of the best programs for the study of modern and classical Chinese currently available. The Chinese Language Center (CLC) at National Cheng Kung University (NCKU) is the oldest Chinese language program in Taiwan. The program focuses on linguistic and cultural immersion and includes, in addition to intensive Chinese language coursework, opportunities for teaching English at a local middle school.
