A. REQUIREMENTS:
- Linguistics 211
- Linguistics 212
- Five additional courses in linguistics (or cross-listed in linguistics)
- Language requirement: evidence of academic study of two languages other than the student’s native language(s), equivalent to at least second-year college-level proficiency in one language, and at least first-year college-level proficiency in the second. This requirement may be fulfilled with language courses and/or placement exams.
- A total of four semester units in an allied field (these may be courses cross-listed as linguistics, but may not be used to fulfill linguistics or language course requirements above.)

B. RECOMMENDATIONS:
- Additional courses in the allied field and in linguistics
- At least one classical language (Greek or Latin) or one non-Indo-European language (Chinese, Arabic) as part of, or in addition to, the language requirement above
- Courses in anthropology, psychology, literature, and/or philosophy, in addition to courses in the student’s chosen allied field

C. JUNIOR QUALIFYING EXAM
D. THESIS 470 (LINGUISTICS)